SLEEPING BEAUTY Following a $16-million renovation, San Diego's historic Pickwick Hotel has recently reopened as The Sofia Hotel. Local architect Richard Bundy restored the Gothic architecture of the 1926 building, while local designer Anjum Razvi modernized the 212 rooms with custom mahogany furnishings, and gave the lobby capiz-shell window panels that filter light onto the stairway. 150 W. Broadway, San Diego, 800-826-0009, thesofiahotel.com.
